II. Definitions

A. Algorithmic Bias Claim means a Claim alleging discrimination in pricing, selection, or decision-making caused by AI output.

B. AI IP Claim means a Claim alleging unintentional infringement, misappropriation, or violation of intellectual-property rights arising from AI systems.

C. Hallucination Claim means a Claim alleging defamation, disparagement, or publication injury resulting from inaccurate AI-generated content.
D. Training-Data Misuse Claim means a Claim alleging unauthorized collection, storage, or use of personal or proprietary data in AI training sets.
E. Data Poisoning Claim means a Claim arising from malicious inputs or attacks that degrade model integrity or security.
F. Service Interruption Loss means Loss sustained by a client resulting from an unplanned outage, degradation, or failure of an AI service provided by or on behalf of the Insured.
G. Autonomous AI Bodily Injury Claim means a Claim for bodily injury or property damage caused by an AI-controlled physical system.
H. Deepfake Claim means a Claim alleging privacy violation, impersonation, brand harm, or fraud resulting from AI-generated synthetic media.
I. Civil Fine Claim means a non-indemnifiable monetary penalty imposed by a governmental authority for violation of an AI-specific law or regulation, but only where insurable by law.

III. Carve-backs and Limitations

A. Any exclusion for intellectual-property, product recall, or discrimination does not apply to the extent coverage is granted under a selected module.
B. Regulatory exclusions do not apply to Defense Costs for a selected Regulatory Investigation module, subject to its sub-limit.
C. Coverage under multiple modules for the same Claim will be apportioned to prevent stacking; the Insurer's maximum liability will not exceed the largest applicable Limit.
D. Civil fines are covered only where permitted by governing law and solely up to the Civil Fines & Penalties sub-limit.

All other terms remain unchanged.
